The Middle States Validation Team approves Accreditation!

On October 20, 2011 the Excellence by Design Validation Team recommended that Aaron Academy be accredited by the Middle States Commission on Secondary Schools for 7 years.

A report submitted to the faculty and administration recognized the “strong special education academic program of Aaron Academy, the specific achievements of its students as well as the vibrant life of this community and your commitment to the mission and values of your school.”

Congratulations staff, families and students of Aaron Academy!
